Fielding is charged with having secured a certain sum of money from the Ogden Savings bank by fraudulent securities. After marrying a young woman of this city, who has since had the marriage annulled, Fielding left with his bride for a tour of the northwest. He was arrested and brought back here. It developed that the man had a wife living in Salt Lake, from whom he was not diversed. Hence the annulment of the marriage. During the examination yesterday there were several sharp exchanges between Cashier John Pingree of the First National bank and Attorney Robinson of Salt Lake, who is defending Fielding. The court threatened to fine both men for contempt of court.

Ephraim Hunters Having Good Success in Securing Big Game.

Ephraim, July 27.—The hunters in this ity succeeded in trapping another grizzly bear in the Ephraim mountains about eight miles east of this city yesterday morning.

This is the third bear that has been trapped within a week by Edwin and Austin Stevens. After catching the two large ones a few days ago they again set the traps, and within a few hours after, it is thought, the trap was sprung, catching the animal by the front leg.

The bear was first noticed by a crowd who were on a pleasure trip, and when it was discovered, the young ladies became very much alarmed. The news of the capture soon reached the town and not many hours elapsed before the eager hunters were on the ground trying to lasso the angry animal. Having been in the trap for perhaps two days, sufferlasso the angry animal. NEW TRIAL OVERRULED.

Alexander Justensen Is Sentenced to Four Years in Penitentiary for Perjury. Ephraim, July 27.—The latter part of the week was consumed in the argument for a new trial in the Alexander Justensen perjury case. At the conclusion of the argument the defendant was sentenced to the penitentiary at hard labor for a perlod of four years.

At the conclusion of the Justenson case the hearing of the case of Wilson against Marben of Mt. Pleasant was taken up. The examination of the witnesses was long and tedious, and many showed a disposition to get their testimony slightly confused. Checks, bank accounts and statements were produced in abundance. Wilson's methods of keeping track of his affairs were evidently faulty. Judge Johnson held that instead of having money coming to him from the defendant he had been overpaid to the tune of about $200.
